

Mark E. Hundley, M.Ed., L.P.C.

Mark E. Hundley is licensed professional counselor, motivational speaker and author. He and his wife Vanessa, who is a licensed professional counselor and a school counselor, own Awaken Associates counseling service.

Mark has worked with individuals and families in multiple venues since 1971. He earned a B.A. in Sociology from Hardin-Simmons University in 1975 and an M.Ed. in Counseling from the University of North Texas in 1993. He has worked as a Licensed Professional Counselor since 1994. Mark finds professional fulfillment working in the following areas:

Counseling—Loss and grief, life transitions; blended family challenges; as well as gay & lesbian issues

Motivational Speaking—Mark's speaking has captivated thousands! He subtly eases his way into the hearts and minds of his audiences, expertly administering compassion, humor, wisdom and insight in presentations guaranteed to make you laugh, cry, think, and dream. Clients include life insurance companies; mental health organizations; funeral homes; public school districts; colleges and universities

Writing--Mark has written Awaken to Good Mourning – a unique guide for personal journeys of grief -- which is now available in audio book format. This two-cd set is sure to become a cherished friend of those facing the devastation of losing a loved one to death. The audio version includes a bonus track -- Brooks & Dunn's 2006 ACM and CMA Song of the Year, Believe! He also has contributed to numerous professional publications and enjoys writing short fiction.

Visit Mark's blog at <http://livinginthemeantimes.typepad.com> and <http://livinginthemeantimes.typepad.com/awaken>

You may also follow Mark on Twitter ~~ markhundley